

PRESS GANG.

Kentucky Editors Met in Louisville and President Paul M. Moore tells of the Work of the Association.

LEFT FOR ST. LOUIS MONDAY NIGHT.

The annual meeting of the Kentucky Press Association took place at the Louisville Hotel Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The principal business before the meeting was the reading of the president's address, election of officers, the consideration of a motion for the appointment of a committee to revise the constitution and by-laws of the association and the discussion of foreign advertising rates.

W. I. Adams was appointed to succeed J. H. Westover resigned as the Kentucky representative to the National Editorial Association.

The present officers of the association are: President, Paul M. Moore; Vice President, Louis Landrum; Secretary, R. E. Morningstar; Chairman of the Executive Committee, E. A. Gullion; Members of the Executive Committee, Low R. Brown, Desha Breckinridge, Tom C. Underwood and Heber Matthews. Louis Landrum, the well known editor of the Lancaster Record, was elected to succeed Paul M. Moore and E. A. Gullion, of the Newcastle Local, was elected vice president. R. E. Morningstar was again elected Secretary. The new executive committee will be appointed by the incoming president in a few days after the adjournment of the association.

Work of the Association.

President Moore, in speaking of the work of the Kentucky Press Association said:

The association has been steadily growing towards a business basis within the past few years and the old criticism that we are out only for a lark is no longer applicable. Our midwinter sessions are given up to business and the annual meeting is not entirely a joy outing. We feel as if we had been at work and had accomplished some good. As a result of this tendency toward business some of the old guard, who had dropped out, are becoming interested again and are taking part in the work of association. At Frankfort last winter, through the efforts of association, legislation injurious to the newspaper business was prevented. We are working upon the subject of foreign advertising and we intend to secure a constitution which shall be businesslike in its provisions. These subjects will be considered in the president's annual address. On the whole the condition of the association is good and the prospect is for even better things.

CLINE NESBIT

Meets Death in a Horrible Manner Near Nortonville—Was Returning From New Orleans.

TWO SISTERS LIVE IN THIS CITY.

Cline Nesbit, about 21 years of age, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nesbit, of Madisonville, was run over and killed by an I. C. freight train between Daniel Boone mine and Nortonville Friday afternoon. It is not known just how the unfortunate accident occurred, but it is supposed that he slipped and fell between the cars.

Shortly after the train passed Nortonville he was found lying by the track and it is supposed that the jolting of the cars had in some manner caused him to lose his footing and when discovered twenty cars had passed over him.

Two brothers of the unfortunate young man and Undertaker Ed Thompson, of Madisonville, left immediately for the scene of the accident, returning Friday midnight with the remains.

Though deprived in infancy of speech and hearing by an attack of fever, he was a bright and intelligent boy. He graduated from the deaf and dumb school at Danville, Ky., several years ago with honors, winning a scholarship in a college in Texas, where he spent some time after finishing his studies, in the tailoring business.

Recently he went to New Orleans, La., and engaged in the merchant tailoring business. He had been away from his people for over a year.

He was a sober, industrious hard working boy and his legion of friends deeply deplore his shocking death. He was a member of the Christian church. The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the family residence in Madisonville, conducted by Eld. S. F. Fowler, after which the remains were interred at Grapevine Cemetery.

The deceased was a brother of Mrs. Barton Crutchfield and Mrs. B. B. Hackney, of this city.

JUDGE C. C. GIVENS RESIGNS

On Account of Press of Private Business. Will Devote Entire Time to Newspaper Work and Fairs.

Judge C. C. Givens, of Madisonville, has tendered his resignation as county judge of Hopkins county, to take effect July 1st. This action was taken on account of the emoluments of the office not being sufficient to support his family, and because he could make more money along other lines. He was elected for four years and went into the office on January 5, 1902. It is not known who his successor will be.

Ideal Entertainers.

Monday night the "Ideal Entertainers," of Saginaw, Mich., gave one of their delightful performances at Temple Theatre. There was quite a nice crowd present and a neat little sum was realized for the I. O. O. F. lodge of this place.

The entertainment consisted of songs, moving pictures, recitations and instrumental selections which were well received. A parody on "Goo-Goo Eyes" and an illustrated poem were among the many numbers that were enthusiastically received. The entertainment was very creditable and the Ideal Entertainers certainly merit the name.

Why will any woman be affected in her manner of talking?

CONFEDERATE VETS

Having a Hot Time at the Reunion in the City of Rocks.

A large crowd of those belonging to Camp No. 528, U. C. V., left Tuesday morning for Nashville to take part in the exercises of the reunion in the Rock City. These worthy old citizens, who fought for the "Lost Cause," will no doubt enjoy the gathering to the fullest extent. They will meet old friends and comrades and talk over events that happened in the years long since numbered with the past. They deserve to have a good time, and there is no reason why they should not. Those from Camp 528 attending are:

METROPOLITAN INSURANCE AGENTS

Have a Good Time at Kuttawa Driving, Fishing and Picnicking.

The Metropolitan Insurance Co., through its Assistant Superintendent Toy, of Princeton, gave the agents of the Madisonville district a delightful trip last Friday. Only those agents who did a certain amount of business for one month were included in the trip. They went to Kuttawa, where they picnicked all day, with an elegant dinner and supper on the ground. Otho Fowler, formerly of Madisonville, cashier of the bank at Kuttawa, entertained members of the party with an enjoyable drive to the springs and over the beautiful country around Kuttawa. At night the party was entertained with delightful music at the home of Robert Irwin. Those who attended from this district were C. C. Rambo, R. P. Shacklett, Misses Sallie and Rosalie Brown.

DAN LOVAN GOES WRONG.

A Trusted Employee of the Kingston-Wolf Coal Co. Leaves With $300 of the Company's Cash.

On last Saturday Mr. Kingston, manager of the Kingston-Wolf Coal Co., near Mortons Gap, gave to Dan Lovan checks to the amount of $600 and $300 in cash, with instructions to take the checks and money to Madisonville and deposit same in bank. Lovan has been in the employ of the company for some time and was regarded as a trustworthy, reliable young man. He went to Madisonville and deposited the checks, but it is alleged that the cash remained with Lovan and went with him to parts unknown. Nothing has been heard of him since he deposited the checks, and his action in making off with the money was a considerable surprise to those who know him.

Lovan is about 35 years of age, and lived at Mortons Gap, where he left a wife and children. The company has taken steps toward apprehending and prosecuting Lovan.

The soldiers in the far East are not only wasting their Government's money, but also our time.

SCHOOL CLOSSES.

Earlington Public School Closed Last Friday Night With an Entertainment at Temple Theatre.

THE HOUSE WAS WELL FILLED.

The Earlington public school, after a ten months' session, closed last Friday, and the overworked teachers and studious scholars will enjoy a vacation. The closing exercises took place at the opera house before one of the largest audiences ever assembled there. The entertainment was a splendid success and the efficient principal, Miss Minnie Bourland, and her able assistants, Prof. Deere, Misses Carlin and Mothershead and Mrs. Miller, deserve abundant praise for the mastery with which the children were trained, and the delightful entertainment given. First on the program was a chorus, "Grumbling Tommy and the Bells," by the little tots, which was well received. Next came the "Little Washerwomen," and then the "Old time country debate" that carried many of the audience back to the days of their early youth. The "March of the Caratons" by nine little girls dressed in pink was one of the best events of the affair. The "Ten Little Snowflakes" was cute and original. This was by many thought to be one of the best on the program. The "Sunbonnet March," by the large girls, was exceedingly ludicrous and caused much demonstration of approval. The girls in this march wore their bonnets and aprons hind part before, with masks on the back of their heads. The effect when they stooped or bent forward was laughable in the extreme. The "Character Duet," "Avril Chorus" and "Handkerchief Drill" were all good and it is safe to say no entertainment ever given at the opera house was more enjoyed than this one.

Brookside Farm.

About four years ago W. C. McLeod purchased from a man named Roberts 125 acres of land overgrown with thickets and sedge grass. At the time of the purchase some of his friends told him the land was worthless and the farm of no value; in other words, he had a large white elephant on his hands. But they were mistaken. There has been a wonderful change in Brookside in four years. Where erstwhile the festive rattlesnake had his den and played tag through the sedge grass and minks and other varmints roamed at will through the dense thickets, now stand dressed in living green and long rows of beets, onions, radishes, tomatoes and other vegetables show forth the fertility of the soil. Valuable improvements have been made in the way of barns, stables and outhouses, and "Brookside," under the efficient management of its present owner, is a neat, well kept farm. Energy and enterprise will accomplish wonders.

Green River Association of Ex-Federal Soldiers.

The annual reunion of the Green River Association of Ex-Federal Soldiers will be held in Central City July 4th, instead of on the 2nd, as at first intended. The general public and all ex-Confederate soldiers are cordially invited to be present. An interesting program is being arranged.

Any meal after regular hours seems to be called a banquet.

GETS $250,000.

Methodist Church, South, of Kentucky, Gets Liberal Donation.

By a recent court decision the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of Kentucky, secures a gift of $250,000 bequeathed to it by the will of Mrs. Fannie Speed, of Louisville.

Mrs. Speed was a widow who died possessed of an estate valued at $500,000, and willed half this sum to the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for educational purposes.

This will was contested by relatives on the grounds of incapacity and undue influence, but the decision referred to says the will must stand.

It is said a like sum of money will now be added to this amount for the purpose of establishing a Methodist college at Louisville.

Miss Nettie Belle Martin Entertains.

Miss Nettie Belle Martin entertained quite a number of her little friends at Lakeside Park Tuesday. It was a birthday party and she was 13 years old. Miss Martin and Miss Mabel saw that the children had a good time. After playing all they had ever heard of, refreshments were served on the ground and greatly enjoyed. After refreshments the children enjoyed boat riding and picking flowers. At five o'clock the tired and happy children went home conscious of having crowded a large amount of pleasure into a few short hours. Miss Nettie Belle received several nice birthday presents from her friends.

SUCCESS ASSURED

For Tri-State Old Fashioned Fair at Evansville August 1 to 6

The Tri-State Fair Association has secured the services of Judge C. C. Givens, of Madisonville, as general manager again this year and will give another old fashioned country fair during the week of August 1, six days and six nights. A great array of races, ring shows and special attractions will be presented. The admission will be only 25 cents. Under Judge Givens' management the fair was a great success last year and the people were pleased.

A Summer Home.

A modern Southern home, illustrated in the Delineator for July, commends itself not only to those who dwell in torrid zones but as well to those in Northern parts who build with an aim of lessening the discomforts of the Summer climate. In the exterior Portland cement and rough sawed chestnut, gray-stained, are the main factors, giving a solidity that is well calculated to resist the rays of the sun, without, however, sacrificing the artistic possibilities. Commodious, high ceiled rooms and green woodwork within contribute to the appearance of coolness, while a quaint effect is given by the furnishings and decorations. Cozy inglenooks and interesting mantels are other attractive features of this summer home.

Notice.

A series of meetings will be held at the General Baptist church beginning Saturday, June 18, at 7:30 p. m., conducted by Elders N. F. Gabbert, of Howell, Ind., and W. A. Miller, of Seabro. Everybody is invited to attend the services.

Some vandal cut a large pane of glass from the lower window on the left side of the opera house Friday night during the school entertainment. It is supposed to have been some of the tough gang who hung around the outside and refused to come in the house when Manager McGary offered to let them in free of charge. It is a sad fact, but there are some boys here who are past masters in the art or deviltry. The reform school is the proper place for such boys.

Triumphs of Modern Surgery.

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are splined; the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the old treatment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts upon this same principal. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail.

Al Reddix, night watchman at Howell shops, had the misfortune to lose twenty dollars last pay day.

The fellow who missed the Providence plug the other day has written in his day-book the following: "The accommodation does not wait to accommodate anybody."

Fireman P. J. Dean has returned from a month's vacation near Memphis, Tenn.

A farmer by the name of Henry McClanney, who lives near Sebree, planted some pumpkin seed, which he had purchased from a prominent store in Earlington, last spring along the track of the Louisville and Nashville. When the pumpkins appeared they proved to be very rapid growers. One evening about sundown a vine crept across the track and bore a pumpkin between the rails. When train 92 came along Engineer Will Rowe made out an obstruction upon the track ahead and barely stopped the train in time. Going forward he found it to be a mammoth pumpkin, which had developed within a few hours. The engineer, assisted by the train crew and three coach loads of passengers, among whom were John W. Logsdon, superintendent; Martin Devoey, the assistant; Thomas Walsh, master mechanic; and Maurice Seargent, master of trains, tried to roll the pumpkin off the track, but it would not budge. The train was then backed to the nearest station and the wrecking crews called out from Earlington and Howell, in charge of Nick Shannon and Mike McGlynnan, respectively. Holes were drilled into the pumpkin and it was broken into fragments by blasting with dynamite. The track was then cleared and the passenger train proceeded on its journey five hours late. Mr. McClanney regrets the loss and has been aided by several of the young lawyers of the country to bring suit against the company to recover damages for the loss of the pumpkin. The readers of this story are requested not to try to verify it by asking the railway officials about it, because they would probably deny it; as railway companies never like to admit catastrophes which delay their trains.

Logan Osborn, the well known "ice man" at Howell, who has charge of the re-icing of cars, in company with Mrs. Osborn, will start Saturday for Livermore, Ky., where they will spend a short vacation.

Engineer Wellington Newton, of McLeansboro, Ill., will leave for St. Louis Tuesday with his family to spend a week at the World's Fair.

Joe Cook had the misfortune to have three of his toes dislocated at Edgeland Junction Sunday afternoon while jumping from the train. When he reached Nashville he had a surgeon reduce the fractured members, and made the trip back to Earlington Tuesday evening.

We quote the following from the Literary Digest for June 11: "The spectacle of 75,000 railroad men being thrown out of work within the past two months is the subject of earnest discussion in many of the papers. This great reduction is said to be due to the decline in business. Since March 1, according to one railroad official, the net earnings of the railroads have decreased more than ten per cent., which means that 'our railroads are running behind last year's earnings at the rate of nearly $45,000,000 a year.' While earnings have thus been falling off, running expenses have been growing, and to meet this threatening situation several lines have been compelled to lay off large numbers of employees and others have curtailed improvements. A large part of the present trouble is due to the strikes of the miners and ore-handlers in Colorado and Michigan, the lake vessel masters and pilots, and freight-handlers in the East.

Fireman E. C. Cunningham, of the Henderson Division, is going to Chattanooga first of the month on a vacation. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Cunningham.

Engineer Thomas Giannini and family will depart in a few days for Central City.

Mr. Pat Ryan, the general foreman at Russellville, Ky., compliments the boys from the Henderson and St. Louis Divisions, who are soon to be given the final examination for engineer, as being the best class he has had for a long time.

The following parties from this place went to Howell Tuesday to be examined by Master Mechanic Thos. Walsh: Elmo Shaver, L. L. Patterson, C. J. Martin, Fireman Yonta, E. Dumont and Andy Smith.

Pat Duffy went to Howell Monday to go out on a through run.

Conductor Ed Wilson, who formerly had charge of the Elkton Guthrie train and has been off a long time on account of sickness, is again able to work.

The best salary paying railroad in the country is the Santa Fe Pacific. The scale there is $3.00 per 100 miles and 37½ cents per hour for overtime. The lowest rate paid to telegraph operators is $80 per month, and some of them receive as high as $95. This road is a part of the Santa system in Arizona.

Mr. George K. Babcock was thrown from a wagon and severely bruised. He applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely and says it is the best remedy he ever used. Mr. Babcock is a well known citizen of North Plain, Conn. There is nothing quite so Pain Balm for sprains and bruises. It will effect a cure in one-third the time required by any other treatment.

MINING NOTES

SEBREE OIL AND GAS COMPANY

Direct Officers and Will Begin Operations at Once.

The stockholders of the Sebree Oil and Gas Company held their first annual meeting for the election of officers and directors at the Sebree Deposit Bank last week and the following named gentlemen were elected:

President, J. A. Powell; Vice-President, T. K. Wilson; Secretary, S. F. Powell; Treasurer, A. J. Couch.

It is the intention of the company to begin operations at once, and Mr. J. F. Doudna, an expert oil well man, will be employed by the contracting committee to begin the work of sinking a well just as soon as possible. It is thought that machinery for that purpose will be placed on the ground within ten days.

The first well will be put down on the company's land, near the well sunk by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company several years ago, and in which gas was struck.

The company hopes to strike oil at a depth of from 800 to 900 feet, but will go much deeper if necessary, and thought to be advisable.

Mr. Luther Haydon, of Hopkinsville, has effected for the bondholders a sale of the Clifton Coal Company's lands at Mannington to Wm. Lynch of Dawson. The sale is for the tract consisting of 1,000 acres with all the old mining machinery, coke ovens, etc. This property is very valuable both for the coal and timber, besides connects with the finest body of coal and timber in Western Kentucky. Lying west of this tract is over 4,000 acres of land running to the Terry Coal field that are underlain with the Empire vein of coal, and that are covered with fine oak timber. We are not advised what disposition Mr. Lynch intends to make of the purchase nor the consideration in the deal but a man of his active business ability will not let it lay idle long.

Mr. William Coil informs us that it will only be a few days until the embankment for the two-mile siding which is to extend from Nebo south to the new coal mine which is being opened by the Rose Creek Coal Co., will be completed and ready for the steel. Mr. Coil is president and general manager of the mining company.—Graphic.

The blacksmith shop at the Arnold mine was burned Friday night. The wire rope in some manner became stationary and the wooden wheel continued to revolve thus causing a friction that ignited the building.

The two-year-old child of Sam McGregor, who lives near No. mine, died Sunday and was buried in the cemetery at this place Monday.

The Rose Creek Coal Co., last week received a big boiler for their new plant, which was loaded on a wagon and eight mules hitched to the wagon but on account of the condition of the roads and the tremendous weight of the boiler, it had to be unloaded. It will be moved after the roads settle.

The Hayes Creek Coal Company, of Pulaski county, has filed articles of incorporation at Frankfort with $25,000 capital. The incorporators are: J. H. Watts, S. P. Blank, and A. McDonald, all of Harriman, Tenn.

Mrs. A. C. Peyton is visiting her daughter at Tamora, Ill., this week.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its cures that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Annual Address.

Following is the annual address of President Paul M. Moore to the Press Association:

Ladies and Gentlemen:—

In reviewing the work of the Kentucky Press Association for the year now ended I must give first place and greatest importance to the labors of your Executive Committee and of two very active and able sub-committees. In directing and pushing a movement to preserve what legislation then existed in Kentucky favorable to the press, to increase the efficiency of these laws, if possible, and to make them of uniform application throughout the State. This work was successful in so far that the laws on the statute books were, through considerable effort, preserved intact; but it was a failure in the more progressive purpose to make plain and consistent these conflicting, numerous and obscure measures. Briefly, the history of this movement is that during the legislative session of 1902, while Mr. Harry McCarty was president of this Association, an advertising law was passed which has proven more practical in its service to the public and benefit to the press than any other measure thus far enacted. But it was incomplete and there were numerous other laws on the statute books that were unknown, or inoperative, or questionable in their meaning and application. It was necessary that these be compiled and classified, and this arduous labor fell upon our devoted and talented Lew B. Brown, who completed his work and presented it in pamphlet form. "A Manual of Legal Advertising in Kentucky," to each member of the Association at Lexington one year later, in 1903. After my election as president, at Lexington, I selected Mr. Brown as one of your Executive Committees, and his labors did not cease. On the contrary, besides meeting his every obligation in general committee work he became the head of the noted committee, "Brown, Smith & Jones," whose admirable work culminated in the passage of a bill that would harmonize and render equitable and uniform the scattered and inefficient measures then and now on the statute books. It was determined that a legislative committee be appointed to push the proposed bill to its passage and I was empowered to select this committee. In doing this I kept in mind my promise registered at Lexington, to give you the best possible committee to do your work, and named the following workers on the legislative committee: E. A. Gullion, Chairman, New Castle; Desha Breckinridge, Lexington; Harry Sommers, Elizabethtown; W. H. Jones, Glasgow; Sam J. Roberts, Lexington; E. C. Smith, Carrollton; W. W. Hedrick, Bowling Green; Tim Needham, Williamstown; Urey Woodson, Paducah. This committee did diligent and forceful work and were able, with assistance of friends in and out of the General Assembly, to prevent adverse legislation, but could not carry further. The chairman of this committee will, however, make you full report at this meeting.

You will hear also from another important committee, the "foreign advertising committee," composed of W. Q. Adams, D. B. Wallace and Dan M. Bowman, whose report is due at this meeting. Another committee, appointed upon authority delegated to me by the "mid-winter" meeting, was the "appropriation committee." The purpose of this committee was to assist the Kentucky Exhibit Association in its effort to secure from the legislature the appropriation necessary to complete the work, begun by the Kentucky Exhibit Association and aided largely and liberally by the Kentucky press, of giving Kentucky worthy and deserved representation at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. On this committee I appointed Vice-President Louis Landram, Executive Committee member T. C. Underwood, H. A. Sommers and W. C. Barrickman. These gentlemen cooperated heartily with the Kentucky Exhibit Association and had the endorsement of almost the entire Kentucky press. The appropriation was secured and Kentucky took rank among the foremost states of the Union in the race for preeminence in affairs social, commercial, industrial.

Under authority from the Executive Committee I named the following delegates to the Nineteenth Annual Convention of the National Editorial Association, held at St. Louis May 16-19: Louis Landram, Lew B. Brown, H. A. Sommers, Harry McCarty, W. Q. Adams, R. W. Brown, L. W. Gaines, T. C. Underwood, W. H. Jones, M. F. Conly, Chas. M. Meacham, who was executive committee member for Kentucky, headed the party and I also had the pleasure of going as a delegate. The other delegates who attended the convention were Lew B. Brown, W. Q. Adams, L. W. Gaines, W. H. Jones and M. F. Conly. The formality of nominating an executive committee to succeed Mr. Meacham was overlooked at St. Louis and the name of your former executive committee member to the National Editorial Association, Mr. John H. Westover, now a citizen of the far west, has since the convention, been published as the committee member from Kentucky. I recommend that the Association today elect an executive committee member who shall be nominated by the delegates who attended the session of the N. E. A., in accordance with the provisions of that Association's constitution, Art. 4, Sec. 1, and the person chosen by the president and secretary be instructed to communicate with the officers of the National Association with the request that this action be confirmed.

I call especial attention to the expediency and necessity of recording in the published minutes of each annual meeting the full proceedings of the preceding mid-winter business meeting, together with all papers read and addresses delivered at that session. These mid-winter meetings, which have been held for the past two years only, have proven very interesting and profitable. The last one was held, for special and regular sessions, in December, 1903, at a time of year when newspaper workers are busiest; but there was present, notwithstanding, a good and very representative number of the busiest Kentucky newspaper men, who took spirited part in a lively though scarce lengthy enough session.

I wish to emphasize the dignity and weight of your Association as a business organization. It can no longer be alleged that our chief purpose is to junket and to junket. We have been at serious business this year, and this, too, is a business meeting strictly. Your Executive Committee declined a most cordial and reassuring invitation, from the press and the Mayor of the City of Henderson, to hold this annual meeting there; because the committee did not believe the Association had time to be entertained this year. As I said before, the last mid-winter session, though busy, was brief. But the work of the Association did not cease there; it only got a further impetus and went on seriously from that date, in the bands of the proper committees, as their reports and an extensive correspondence will show.

Your Vice-President, Mr. Louis Landram, and your Executive Committee members, Messrs. E. A. Gullion, Desha Breckinridge, T. C. Underwood, Lew B. Brown and Heber Meacham, have conscientiously and selflessly demanded upon their time and labor for the good of the Association and each deserves your unreserved approbation. The work of your Secretary-Treasurer is before you like a fresh head-line. It is seen and read and enjoyed. We know it and it needs no further elaboration.

We have worked. We have finished our labors. And now we are in a swirling rush from business; from the business of our several newspaper offices and from the business of the Association, which, in self-justification, we shall allege was looked after by the Executive Committee, the mid-winter business session and our legislative committee. We shall all go to the State and patriotism in extension of this short annual meeting, this apparent breaking down of the bars so wisely erected by the "old guard" against any appearance of excessive junketing at the expense of the business dignity of the Association. We shall plead the seductive invitations of the Kentucky Exhibit Association and the Kentucky Commission—to cut everything that might conflict and join with them in joint celebration of Kentucky Day at the World's biggest show; to go and see and rejoice greatly with them over the stunts our own beloved State was and is enabled to do, through the free and forceful use of our top-column space.

With Arthur Ford and Bob Hughes and their large, illuminated button of the "New Kentucky Home," we can confidently say, "It's part mine," and we are headed for St. Louis at this particular time because we love Kentucky; because we want the world, like an oyster, opened before us, and because here is the one chance offered to get back a part of the part that's ours. We go at the urgent and repeated invitation of the officers of the Kentucky Commission, and to get as large a part of the part that's theirs as they are willing to part with.

But whatever our material rewards or our share of glory, we shall have the consciousness of patriotic duty well performed and this shall be our recompense. A fair journey you will have and I hope a happy return and many years of progressive usefulness as members of the Kentucky Press Association.

News for the Farmer

At the present time the farmers are not registering very strong kicks against the prospects for a good wheat crop. Wheat is doing nicely and, unless some unforeseen enemy of the cereal and the farmer pays it a visit between now and harvest time, there will be a good yield and the county will have some money to lay aside from that source. Last year the wheat shipments from the county were not worth mentioning and farmers got but little more than their bread out of the crop, while some of the farmers found it hard to pay their fertilizer bills with the proceeds of their wheat sales.

Hemp has been badly damaged in some localities by cut worms; otherwise it is in good condition.

There will probably be a somewhat larger crop of peaches than was indicated by previous reports.

Tobacco plants are quite small, especially in the Hurley district. Transplanting progressed slowly, being retarded by dry weather and the smallness of plants.

Oats are doing very well. Grasses and pastures have suffered from rain, but are now improving; the yield of early hay will be short. Late forage crops, such as peas, cane and millet are being sown.

The export trade in bananas from Porto Rico to the United States began in 1881, and has grown from 3,500 bunches to upwards of 4,000,000 bunches annually.

Corn is generally thrifty and the soil in good condition. A good deal of corn was destroyed by cut worms, but the ravages of these pests are lessened.

The fruit crop of California will probably be slightly below the average in quantity this year. The Sacramento Valley fruit districts, which provide the bulk of California's fruits report heavy crops of pears, but slight shortage in most other fruits.

The first box of cherries shipped from California this year was sold in Chicago for $25-$3.12 a pound. The second sale made in the city of Philadelphia, at auction, was a record breaker, 8 pounds of cherries bringing the remarkable price of $70. Carload shipments from Sacramento Valley districts began May 18th, when a carload of cherries were shipped from Vacaville.

Wheat in the northeastern and some of the central counties is very poor, but it has improved generally, and in many of the western counties a fair yield is expected. On the whole, the prospect is much better than at the close of the winter, though there cannot be near a full crop.

Walter McGary had an exciting chase after a burglar Friday night. Walter and his wife were preparing to retire when they heard a noise at the side window. On pulling aside the curtain there stood a man with his face pressed close against the wire screen. Walter asked his wife to hand him the pistol lying on the mantel, but instead of doing so she hastened to the telephone to call up City Marshal Benton. When Walter had secured his pistol and gotten out the door the man was running up the alley. He fired two shots in the direction the burglar was going but had no way of telling whether the shots took effect.

THE COMMANDER OF RUSSIA'S ARMY

en. Kuropatkin a Basy Man, Whose Word is Law Among His Subordinates.

S HEADQUARTERS ARE IN A CAR, WHERE HE WORKS, EATS AND SLEEPS.

He Finds Time From His Arduous Duties to Pay Attention to the Red Cross Work and to Look After the Wants of Wounded Officers and Soldiers.

Liao Yang, June 12.—The entire Russian plan of campaign is conducted from a railway carriage here, in which Gen. Kuropatkin works, eats and sleeps. The car is divided into a saloon, a study and a bedroom. The commander-in-chief passes the most of his time in the study at work, surrounded by his aides. Although somewhat of stature, Kuropatkin is at once distinguishable among his entourage, however brilliant may be their uniforms, by his determined features and sturdy figure. He has the reputation of being severe, but just, and his word is law. His officers express the fullest confidence in him, and he is the idol of the Russian soldiers, and the foreign attachés find him most pleasant.

An Indefatigable Worker. He takes little or no rest, except a half-hour's siesta after lunch, when the heat is excessive, and he occasionally indulges in the distraction of reading.

ing literary works. Dispatches from the scene of operations are brought to him at any hour of the day or night. The general eats well, of simple dishes, but hurriedly, seldom remaining at a table more than a half-hour at a time. He drinks wine sparingly, smokes a cigar or two after breakfast, and sets a general example of abstemiousness to his officers. He rises at seven o'clock, and retires at midnight. After drawing up a daily dispatch to the emperor, summarizing the situation, his mornings are engaged in the consideration of correspondence and tactical questions. He often mounts a horse and makes a tour of inspection of the camps and military works around Liao Yang, sees visitors during the afternoon, and subsequently receives the reports of the generals at the theater of operations.

Interested in Red Cross Work. Kuropatkin is much interested in the Red Cross work, visits the hospitals, and speaks encouragingly to the patients. He never misses going to the station to meet trains bringing wounded men, and out at Bagdad, seen from St. Petersburg gives them money according to their rank—$15.00 for an unmarried, $25.00 to a married man and as much as $50.00 to officers. He also distributes medals to the workers who have performed acts of special bravery.

THE RUSSIAN GENERAL STAFF.

They View and Discuss the Situation at Liao Yang.

St. Petersburg, June 12.—The view of the general staff is that, as the Japanese column which reached Liu-Yen was not followed by either of the main armies in southern Manchuria, the Japanese have no present intention of advancing on Hai-Cheng, but have sent forward a force as a feint, to menace and discourage, as much as possible, the dispatch of a heavy Russian force down the Liao-Tung peninsula. Neither does the general staff believe that the enemy's column will advance northward, should it go so far north as Djang-Jian, is of a serious character, the opinion being that Gen. Kuropatkin continues to dangle before Gen. Kuropatkin's eyes a double object, but that he is not yet strong enough to risk a real advance. This belief is based on calculations that the enemy has not more than 120,000 men all told in southern Manchuria, and that only in the event of the Japanese attaining strength greatly in excess of these figures will they be capable of a genuine forward movement.

No fresh news has been received in regard to the situation around Port Arthur.

Private advices from Liao Yang indicate that the Russian force from Vandian is prepared to retire northward if seriously threatened.

Will Reject British Proposal.

London, June 13.—The Telegraph's Brussels correspondent says that the British government will shortly send a fresh note to Great Britain reflecting the proposal to establish consular tribunals in the Congo state, and offering to order inquiries into grievances to be conducted by Congo state officials and judges exclusively.

NAN PATTERSON INDICTED

The Actress Who Was With Book-maker Young, When Killed, Indicted.

She is Charged With Murder in the First Degree, and Will be Arraigned to Plead Tuesday.

New York, June 14.—Mrs. Nan Patterson, the actress, who was with Caesar Young, the bookmaker, in a cab on June 4, when he was shot and killed, has been indicted for murder in the first degree. Young, who had been a close friend of Mrs. Patterson for several years, met her by appointment about two hours before the time set for the sailing of the steamship which he was to sail on with his wife for Europe. They had spent most of the previous evening in conference over the impending separation, and it is understood, that this farewell meeting was arranged for the transfer to Young of certain letters in the possession of Mrs. Patterson. Conflicting stories have been told of the happenings in the cab, and Mrs. Patterson has refused to give the details of the shooting, except to say that Young shot himself, and that after the shooting she had picked up the revolver and placed it in Young's right-hand pocket.

The indictment shows that the witnesses who appeared before the grand jury were: Dr. Edwin N. Riggall, of the Hudson street hospital; Dr. O'Hanlon, coroner's physician; William Leach, "Caesar" Young's brother-in-law; Patrolman Junior, Capt. Sweeney, of the Leonard street station; and Frederick Michaels, a cabman. "A return was made to Judge Newburger. The filing of the indictment obligated the hearing of much evidence as to the coroner's inquest. Only a few witnesses were examined, and the jury quickly returned a verdict that Young came to his death by "but" would.

Mrs. Patterson will be arraigned to plead before Judge Newburger in the court of general sessions Tuesday.

LANGERMAN MEETS RAISULI

Says American Prisoner is in Good Spirits and Hopes for Speedy Release.

Tangier, June 13.—J. W. S. Langerman, commissionaire of the Moroccan section of the St. Louis exposition, arrived here Sunday from the camp of Raisuli, the bandit. In an interview Mr. Langerman said: "I left here by steamer for Arril, in company with a friend and three Moors, the object being to see Raisuli and try to arrange the present difficulties. "I met Raisuli and his band, fully armed, and suspicious of the visit. For a few moments the situation was critical, but all passed off well. "The American woman, Raisuli holds captive, is much better, and in good spirits over the prospect of his speedy release."

Mrs. McKinley walked into his room at 8 o'clock and found him sitting in a chair cold and apparently dead. A physician was summoned, who said death had probably occurred two or three hours before.

No one was killed, but several on each side were badly injured. The trouble was the outgrowth of an argument over the Cripple Creek explosion, in which two killed and several injured.

ALL LARGE MINES ARE NOW LOOKING

The Portland the Only Exception in the Cripple Creek District of Colorado.

LATTER WILL HAVE TO GET IN LINE WITH POLICY OF OTHER OWNERS.

It Has Been an "Open Shop" Mine, But No Members of the Western Federation of Miners Will It to Said, He Allowed to Remain in Camp.

Cripple Creek, Colo., June 14.—Practically all the large mines in the district which closed down last Monday, after the explosion at Independence, are working. The Portland mine has not yet been reopened, and the company has not announced its plans. This is the only large mine in the district in which union miners have been employed during the ten months since the beginning of the strike. It has been conducted on the "open shop" plan, and nearly half the force of 400 men laid off when Gen. Sherman M. Bell ordered the mine shut down were union miners. Gen. Bell declares that no members of the Western Federation of Miners will be permitted to remain in the camp, and that the Portland company, consequently, will be forced to fall in line with the policy of the other mine owners who organized to fight the miners' federation.

Presenting a Statement.

After a conference between representatives of various local unions and of the mine owners and the Citizens' Alliance, at which good feeling was shown on both sides, the employers agreed to make a full and frank statement concerning their attitude toward all organized labor. A committee is preparing a draft of such a statement, which will be submitted to the central committee for approval before it is made public. It may be ready for publication Tuesday. Employers say that no radical action will be taken, except as to the Western Federation of Miners and allied and kindred organizations. The statement will declare that the domination of the Western Federation of Miners will not be longer tolerated in the Cripple Creek district.

Walking Delegate Must Go.

The walking delegate and the boycott also will be declared against in decisive terms. The district trades assembly, as now constituted, employers say, must be abandoned. On the other hand the employers of labor will place themselves on record as against any lowering of the existing scale of wages and hours.

GEN. BELL'S STATEMENT.

The Recent Troubles Attributed to Socialist Influence.

Cripple Creek, Colo., June 14.—Gen. Bell has given out a statement concerning his action in deporting strikers and the causes leading up to the same. He attributes the recent troubles growing out of the miners strike and the strike itself, to the socialist element in the Western Federation of Miners, who, he says, captured the organization two years ago. He declares that the federation has made unionism a secondary consideration, and that the organization is being used as a vehicle for the promotion of socialism. The leaders, he asserts, have not hesitated to cause "weak and willing members to commit crimes to strike terror to property owners or striking men who refuse to abide their dictates."

A Direct Charge.

The murder of non-union men by blowing up the Independence station, he charges was "perpetrated with the aid and advice of federation leaders and by men in their employ."

The only hope for peace and security of life and property was "to exterminate the federation from the camp."

As the head of the state militia, "responsible only to the governor," the general continues, it became his duty to effect this result. The arrest of every man in the district belonging to the federation was ordered. "Unless they were able to show a clean bill of health they were placed in the bull pen and held or deported. The deportation of federation men, Gen. Bell declares, is a "military necessity." They are not being deported because they are union men or to destroy unionism, but because it is believed that they are a menace to the peace and welfare of the district.

SAYS THE STORY IS ABSURD

Ambassador McCormick Denies Cold Treatment by Russians.

Says He is Coming Home to Take a Much-Needed Rest After the Season.

St. Petersburg, June 11.—Ambassador McCormick says the story is absurd that he has been coldly treated by Russian society because as a part of his official duties he takes care of the lease of the Leuchtenberg palace, where the offices of the embassy have been for six months, ex-novo on July 17, and has not been renewed.

Prince Koznebe rented the palace to Mr. McCormick last September as an ambassadorial residence until July 1, when the prince desired to re-occupy it. As the date for the expiration of the lease approached, the prince offered to renew it, but Mr. McCormick did not care to renew. The social season had ended, he had obtained leave of the state department to take a much needed rest, and Mrs. McCormick was going to the United States, to remain until next winter.

Mr. McCormick arranged with the prince for the embassy officers to remain in a portion of the palace indefinitely, and postponed the question of taking a residence until after Mrs. McCormick should return from America.

HIGH WATER IN ARKANSAS

Steady Rise of Arkansas River Has Resulted in Flooding the Lowlands.

Little Rock, Ark., June 11.—A special to the Gazette from Pine Bluff says: The steady rise of the Arkansas river has resulted in flooding nearly all of Jefferson county adjoining the river and for some distance inland. Thousands of acres of growing crops are under water, in several instances being washed up entirely. The loss to farmers in this region will reach thousands of dollars, as it is too late in the year to replant.

Leaves down the river on the northern side are giving way rapidly, and the water is eating into the levee. Sherrill, in Platts Bayou township, is under water, and in some places the water covers the floors of the stores in the heart of the town. The whole of Pastoria township is under water, and every plantation in that district is flooded.

A message from Col. John Gracie at the Hanberry place, says that all the levees in that section broke early this morning, and that full 4,000 acres of land are under water on his plantation.
